Dominic Foos faces 2015 with confidence

Crans-sur-Sierre, Switzerland, November 2014 – Dominic Foos missed the opportunity to secure the European Tour Card for the 2015 season through Q-School events. „Of course I am disappointed missing the final stage of the Qualifying School by 2 shots. It would have been more in it“, comments Dominic Foos his result at the second stage in El Saler/Valencia. “I will continue to work hard with full commitment and focus on my next challenges. I am confident to play my level in the upcoming tournaments.”

The 17-year-old Foos plans to gain his Tour Card through invitations to Challenge and European Tour events in 2015.

Foos will play the Dubai Open, an event of the Asian Tour, from 18 to 21 December 2014 and some of the tournaments of the 2015 ‘desert swing’.
