

PRESS RELEASE

Dominic Foos with historic win at GANT Open in Finland

Dominic Foos dominates the leaderboard to capture his first title on the European Challenge Tour

Teufen, CH (August 16, 2015) - With an impressive start-finish victory golf professional Dominic Foos captures his first title on the European Challenge Tour at the GANT Open held at the Aura GC, Turku/Finland. The 17 year old German becomes the youngest winner ever in European Challenge Tour history taking home his first title with rounds of 65-69-69-67 for a total 270 and a 3 shot lead.

“I am very happy to win my first title on the Challenge Tour. To do it with a wire to wire and realizing that I am the youngest ever to win on The Challenge Tour, makes me somehow proud”, said Dominic after his victory.

At the age of 17 Dominic Foos turned professional in September 2014 as the youngest German ever. Since then he has played numerous events on the European Tour and European Challenge Tour. With this victory Dominic is moving into the Top 20 on the Road to Oman Ranking and closer to his goal getting his 2016 European Tour Card.

You can find more information about Dominic Foos on www.dominicfoos.com and www.impactpoint.ch.

Management and media contact

Irek Myskow, IMPACT point AG

+41 79 2380421

Susanne Gehrckens, IMPACT Point AG

+49 162 4907736

Partners of Dominic Foos

